Moving-up-day Held Last Monday Morning

SENIORS REVIEW HISTORY OF THE LAST FOUR YEARS; PRESENT GIFT

As a climax to class week the annual moving-up-day exercises were held last Monday in the regular chapel hour. After the announcements Dr. Stuart read a brief passage of scripture from I Peter 3: 8-12 and announced the hymn "Fight the Good Fight." He then invited Dr. Ayres, sponsor, Marvin Schilling, president, and the members of the class of '34 to proceed to the platform.

Taking charge of the services, Dr. Ayres invited Blaine Bishop, president elect of the Senior class of next year, and Prof. Cornwell sponsor of the same class to the platform, where Mr. Schilling presented his robe to the incoming president. Each in turn was then invited to take the place of the class ahead of them in the auditorium.

At this time, then, representatives of the class gave the history of the class each of the four years. Oliver Drake cleverly portrayed the first year. Percival Wesche related the events of the second year. Owen Shields told of the Junior life of the class and Marvin Schilling, president for the last two years, summed up the activities of the present year.

The Senior gift was formally presented in the service by Herbert Boyd, chairman of the Senior Gift Committee. Dr. Stuart accepted the gift in the name of the Board of Directors, Students and Faculty of Taylor University.

The Class of 1934 of Taylor University will receive their diplomas next Tuesday morning in the Commencement Exercises. There are thirty-five members in the class. Marvin Schilling is president, Owen Shields is vice president, Athalia Koch is secretary, and William Schermerhorn is treasurer. The class recently presented a water softener plant to the university. Those in above picture are, left to right, first row, Herbert Boyd, Owen Shields, Athalia Koch, Marvin Schilling, William Schermerhorn and Park Anderson; second row, Winifred Brown, Heler Minkler, Rowena Walker, Roberta Bennett, Alice Lovin and Ida White; third row, Frances Scott, Mina Herman, Louise Longnecker, Doris Wilson, Eliza Gould, Helen Gilmore and Isadora Deich; last row staggering, Miriam Pugh, Charles Clifton, Oliver Drake, Arthur Howard, Lyle Case, Walter Martin, Harry Jones, Harold Martin, Matilda Sallaz, Jo Gates, and Percival Wesche. Those missing in the picture are Mary Furbay, John McCreery, Emmie Gayden, Ilene Nieble, and Hedvig Olson.

University Honors Gem-Echo Staffs with Publication Day

COMMITTEE GIVES RIBBONS TO ALL MEMBERS OF STAFF; NEW STAFFS ELECTED

In a manner excelling all other years and featuring a new observance of student publication day, a service was held in chapel on Wednesday of last week. Recognition was given to all students associated with the publishing of the Taylor University Echo and Gem.

With Professor Fenstermacher presiding as chairman of the student publication committee, all members of the Gem and Echo staffs were called to the platform. Each person was presented with a gold lettered ribbon and certificate bearing the capacity and year in which he served. Jo Gates, editor of the Echo, and Bob Weaver, editor of the Gem, were presented individually to the student body, and they spoke concerning their student publication work during the past year and of their appreciation for the help of Professor Fenstermacher, along with Professor (Continued on page 2)

JUNIOR PRESIDENT RETAINS OFFICE; HERRMANN IS COUNCIL PREXY

Continuing a policy which was introduced last year, the Class of 1935 elected Blaine Bishop, president of this year's class, as president of the Senior Class of next year. This is the second time in as many years that this has been done.

To support Bishop the class elected Crystal Lockridge as Vice President, Mary Louise Lewis as Secretary, and Nelson Bastain, treasurer. Robert Titus was elected Chaplain and Gordon Herrmann was chosen as President of the Student Council.

College Newspaper Gains High Rating

RECEIVES HIGHEST POINT RATING SINCE PAPER HAS BEEN IN ASSOCIATION

The 1933-1934 Echo staff is happy that it has received a pleasing rating from the National Scholastic Press Association of Minneapolis, Minnesota. The Association is a part of the University of Minnesota, whose department of journalism is the highest rated in the United States.

This year the Echo received 765 points out of a possible 1000 points. This is the highest rating that a Taylor University paper has ever received from this department. The paper continues to be in the same class, that of second class papers, which is a high rating for this size school. For the past three years now, the Echo has placed in this class. Last year Mr. Wesche's paper rated 735 points and the year before that Mr. Tucker received just a few points less.

The Echo is happy to make this announcement that it has been able to make this progress and keep in line with the staffs of former years. Undoubtedly Mr. Betzold will make the same progress next year.

Announcement has come lately from the administration of the contracting of Raymond F. Kreiner of Iowa to be Professor of Voice next year. Mr. Kreiner is a lyric tenor, who is well known in musical circles of Iowa.

Prof. Kreiner was graduated from Cornell College of Mt. Vernon, Iowa. While in college he was a popular member of the college glee club and did some very fine quartet work. Much of his voice work was taken at Oberlin, in one of the most noted music departments in the United States.

Prof. Kreiner has had experience in college and public school music and has been a very successful teacher of voice. He has produced several popular glee clubs and choruses and will be capable of carrying on the work of these organizations at Taylor.

EDITOR'S FAREWELL

Again another year is almost over and today the final edition of the 1934 Echo goes to press. At times during the past week I have had difficulty in realizing that this would be the last Echo that I would have the privilege of publishing for the students, faculty and alumni of Taylor University. Yet the time has come when the current Echo no longer lives only in dreams but is a reality.

It is a great joy to me to realize that the Echo has taken another step forward this year in receiving a higher rating than ever before. I do not take any of the honor myself but wish to put honor where honor is due and give it to the staff that has worked so wonderfully throughout the year. Laboring under adverse circumstances at times the staff has been almost 100 per cent true to the cause which they set out to accomplish last fall. For those who have played the game the success of the Echo is enough reward, no reward is due the others.

I could name several persons, individually, in this final appreciation. I must not forget Dr. Stuart who has cooperated with us to the utmost, nor Mr. Guy Duckwall who has shown himself willing at all times to help. Again I must name Prof. Fenstermacher and the publication committee for showing their interest in our publication. As for the members of the staff I could name all of them. At no time have I been bothered by the finances or business part of the Echo for Mr. Herbert Boyd has been on hand to take care of it. Percival Wesche has assumed a place on the Echo this year which would be hard to fill. I will not name the others but extend to them my personal thanks.

It is with a sense of disappointment and sorrow that I write these last few lines, my last Echo editorial. Rather than bad luck, I have considered myself lucky to get to spend more than the usual four years on Taylor's Campus and this year has repaid me for it all. I thank God that he made it possible for me to be at Taylor this year and graduate with the Class of '34. To me this has been the greatest year of my life and to be sure the finest since I entered Taylor in 1929.

I wish Mr. Betzold the greatest of success possible in the publication of next year's Echo. My faith was great enough in him to nominate him, and it is great enough to make me know that he will publish one of the best papers ever printed for Taylor University. As I have prayed night after night this year that our paper might come through, so I will pray that he will have God's blessing upon him and his endeavors.

In departing may I wish Taylor University God's blessing and may all who come in contact with it receive the blessing that I have received.

—The Editor

SUPPORT FORENSICS

We are coming to the close of another year. A year that has been different than any other. Especially in our extra-curricular activities have we had change. With the coming in of inter-collegiate athletics our local organizations faced a new problem. In an attempt to meet the situation we took all athletics out of our literary societies, and arranged to have the Debate Clubs and the Societies meet on alternate Saturday evenings. The success of the experiment is doubtful in the minds of many. It has been a hard pull to keep up interest in the Thalo and Philo meetings. The two men's debate clubs were forced to unite in a coalition organization in order to exist.

The history of this last year's activities really doesn't look so promising, but let us take advantage of this experience and use it to our advantage in building up the organizations for next year. If you will look back, as we have done, you will see that these organizations have contributed much to your school life. You really can't afford to have them fail, but they will unless you as an individual give of your time, and of your self to build them up and keep them thriving. Now you know some of the problems. You will have meetings only every other week. Even these meetings will often be interfered with by basketball games or other programs which from the very nature of things demand a greater interest from the student body as a whole. However, does this mean that next year the organizations are going to die? No, it merely means that each one of you is going to have to put forth a little extra effort to make them what we all want them to be.

For a number of years now we have been trying to take the keen spirit of rivalry out of the Literary Societies, and to make them more literary in their character. This year we have done that in a greater way than ever before. Success is in your hands if you will just seize it.

We wish to make a special plea for your loyal support for the debate clubs. In this we feel that an unusual effort is needed to realize the goal that has been set by the Men's Debate club, which is to re-establish the Eulogians and the Eureka's. The club has elected some fine officers to lead in this work, but they can't do it alone; it depends upon you. Many of us are leaving school this year and will not be able to help in the "New Deal" but we do "Throw the torch" to you and hope that you will catch it and hold it high.

—I. M. Moody

WHAT SUCCESS

Again we come to the close of a year. Some say it comes gladly and yet others say that there is a note of sorrow in coming to the end. All of us have had pleasures and disappointments throughout the year.

But as to success. What have we done this year? For many of us perhaps it will be a very difficult matter to in any sort of a complete way sum up the accomplishments in our own lives. It is easy for us to see the accomplishments of others people's lives. It is easy for us to see the successes of Taylor. It is easy for us in a way to notice the accomplishments of all that is around us in the world. But what about ourselves? What can we find in our own lives that has made the school year worth while.

After all that I could say in this short note, and after all that you could think of, we would all come to the same conclusion—that conclusion, that no matter how dark the day looks ahead and no matter how deeply we are submerged in the failures of the past—we have not failed if we have WORKED HARD and put our whole lives behind our purposes. Somehow I am led to believe that no man fails no matter how low he may grope in this versatile world of ours, if embedded in his heart and soul there is the philosophy of "working until the night cometh."

In the days to come candles may begin to burn low at times, our lighthouses of ideals may even falter and we may at times even go to the extremes of pessimism—but with the remembrance of days of success behind a philosophy of hard work we may go on ever to new heights; not without troubles; not without disappointments; no, not without failures. Yet we must be ourselves—we cannot be anyone else and the purpose of our lives is that we might go on ever "digging"—working hard that at the end of all we might say—"My success has come from the philosophy of working hard coupled with a determination of holding to my purposes." With this departing word we leave you until next year.

—Eddie Jonnes.

 I only ask that softly, hand in hand,
 A little child and I may enter at the gate."

ALUMNI NEWS

Here it is time for the last word for the alumni for the year 1933-34. My news this time is so scattered and varied that I hardly know how to present it.

We have had several campus visitors the last few weeks who have been former students and alumni. Kenneth and Helen Griswold were on the campus for two or three days. As you know, they have a pastorate at St. Johns, Michigan, and Helen say it keeps them very busy. They brought two fine prospective students down to see the school. We will probably welcome these two young people as students next year.

Rev. and Mrs. B. D. Nysewander and two daughters, of Albion, Indiana, were visitors last Tuesday. Rev. and Mrs. Hazen Sparks and two children, Rev. and Mrs. Lee Wilson and daughter, Rev. A. W. Pugh, Dr. L. G. Jacobs, Rev. E. L. Gates, and Rev. P. B. Smith were among those who were here for the annual May Day activities.

Maurice Jones was here to speak to Holiness League.

Rev. B. T. Osborne writes from Boone, Iowa, that he has been forced to take a rest from his pastoral duties, and has spent the past few months at Boone.

Madeline Wells, '32, is "Hibernating" at Stony Brook, New York, her home. Billy McNeil, also of '32, is at Buffalo, Missouri, down in the Ozarks, where he has a charge. Mrs. McNeil will graduate from Syracuse University in June.

Virgil Brown is planning to be here for Commencement.

Cecelia Learn is kept busy with the evangelistic work, and is dated for weeks ahead.

Frank Simons says he has two or three jobs in view for next year, and if he "lands" one of these, then—well, you can guess.

And here is some news from some former students. Paul Illick and Goldie Crippen were married recently. Craig Cubbison, who spent last year here, is also married.

Harrison Taylor, we hear, has prospects for a teaching position in Kansas. He is out in the great plains state now, making personal application for the job, and visiting Mary Furbay. I think both of these just named will be with us here for the Commencement activities.

And now, we go back to a graduate of the old Fort Wayne College, Rev. Daniel M. Brown, who was graduated in 1876. He is living at Kokomo, Indiana.

Rev. D. A. Bloomster is living at Tolono, Illinois. Both of these men may be with us for Commencement.

Well, for the last time, I must say that is all the news I could find. I wish to thank the members of the alumni group who have given me news material from time to time.

PUBLICATION DAY

Evans and Coach Cornwell, members and the student publication committee. The awards that were given are not only emblems of work done but of the school for which it was done, and are cherished by those who received them.

Climaxing the program was the election of the Gem and Echo staffs for the next year. Party talk, electioneering, and student politics were all given full sway as the various candidates, previously nominated by the staffs and the student body, were discussed. The new staffs were elected by ballot, with the option of voting either a split or a straight ticket.

With the popular approval of the student body and the backing of the faculty in student activities, we cannot help feeling that a new day is dawning for Taylor.

the Crandon School for Girls in Rome, Italy.

Rev. Wesley H. Bransford, pastor of the First M. E. Church of Anderson, Indiana, will receive his Doctor of Divinity degree in the same service. Dr. Bransford is one of the outstanding preachers of modern Methodism. Last year he delivered one of the outstanding addresses in the history of Taylor University Baccalaureates. He came to Indiana a few years ago from the Ohio conference where he had held several of the large churches.

A grammar-school boy handed in the following composition on "cats." "Cats that's meant for little boys to maul and tease is called Maultese cats. Some cats is reckernized by how quiet their is and these is named Pursian cats. The cats what has very bad tempers is aalled Angorie cats, and cats with deep feelins is called Feline cats. I don't like cats."

Glasgow, Scotland—(IP)—Glasgow University students are credited with having upset the whole of Great Britain with one of the most widespread hoaxes ever perpetrated here.

The students in a spirit of jest told a small town newspaper near here that a woman flyer named Miss N. Tynne had crashed after flying alone from Vancouver, but was not seriously injured.

The newspaper, without further investigation, went to press with the story. Then the news gathering services picked it up, and soon a London newspaper announced in black headlines: "Mystery Airwoman Crashes and Says She Has Flown Atlantic."

When a huge crowd gathered at the station of the small town near Glasgow to see the flyer, the students revealed that they had inserted the hoax in the paper to draw a crowd from which they could solicit for local charities.

Princeton, N. J.—(IP)—Scientists at Princeton University have succeeded in producing a new kind of water—heavy water—for use in experiment in all departments of the university.

Professors Hugh Scott Taylor and Arthur A. Frost, assisted by Arthur A. Frost, Harvard Fellow in chemistry at Princeton, have succeeded in devising a process by which about a thimbleful of heavy water is produced every two days.

The water looks like ordinary water, but is different in that each hydrogen atom in the water has a mass of two instead of the usual mass of one.

It has been found that fresh water animals die when placed in the heavy water. It is expected to be of especial use to physicists who are studying the structure of the atom.

In Montana a railway bridge had been destroyed by fire and it was necessary to replace it. The bridge engineer and his staff were ordered in haste to the place. Two days later came the superintendent of the division.

Alighting from his private car, he encountered an old master bridge-builder.

"Bill," said the superintendent—and the words quivered with energy—"I want this job rushed. Every hour's delay costs the company money. Have you got the engineer's plans for the new bridge?"

"I don't know," said the bridge-builder, "whether the engineer has the picture drawn yet or not, but the bridge is up and the trains is passin' over it."

French Club Elects Hodges as President

The French Club has selected Ivan Hodges as president for the coming year. Mr. Hodges is a member of the class of '35. He is a member of the second quartet and has been an outstanding worker in gospel team work since coming to Taylor.

Mollie Bell was elected vice president in the same meeting. As secretary the club selected Mildred Irwin. Noman Holder was chosen as Treasurer. Lorena Porter will preside at the piano and Karl Keith will be the new chorister. Charles Cookingham was selected as Chaplain.

TAYLOR UNIVERSITY ORCHESTRA

The University Orchestra is closing one of the most successful years that the orchestra has ever known. Strengthened by several additions from the Freshman class the organization has given several public concerts and will play for the processions and recessions of the commencement programs. The orchestra is ably directed by Professor George Fenstermacher who has been doing such work for over ten years on Taylor's campus.

Weaver Shows Originality in Publication of Taylor Annual

DELAWARE ENGRAVERS, SCOTT PRINTERS, AND FORKNERS STUDIO ALL ASSIST

One of the features of the closing of school was the presentation of the 1934 Gem to the faculty, alumni, and student body last week. Throughout the year reports have come from time to time concerning the publication and expectations were climaxed at the publication banquet Wednesday night, when Editor Robert Weaver presented his book.

Robert Weaver

The Gem this year was produced through the efforts of new printers and engravers. The Delaware Engraving Company of Muncie, Indiana, produced the cuts and the Scott printing company of the same city printed the book and had it bound and covered. The Forkner Studio of Anderson, Indiana, again did the photographic work.

The annual has some new and very interesting features in it. Several unique campus views have been placed in the front section, following the dedication page, which is made to President Stuart. In the faculty section each department has a capable write up and explanation of its work. A new plan was used in the presenting of the classes, which has proved very popular with the students. Altogether the book is one of the most original ever produced here. Each department is a book in itself.

Much credit is due Mr. Weaver and his staff for this fine production. Fine cooperation is seen in their resulting book.

Such fun, this job hunting! You know, being a college man I never wear a hat. Yesterday I was standing in a bookshop waiting to be hired when a lady came in, picked up a book and handed me two dollars. Today I'm going to loiter in a piano store.

Societies Turn to Literary Contests

SEVEN EVENTS IN ANNUAL CONTEST; CLOSE CONTEST PREDICTED

The contest of the Philathea and the Thelonian Literary Societies which is to be held Monday morning, June 4, in Shreiner Auditorium at ten-thirty promises to be very interesting. The contestants have been working hard on their numbers and the competition will probably be closer this year than it has been previously.

Mr. Robert Titus, president of the Philos, says that he feels the contest is something to which we all look forward, not only from the standpoint of competition but from the standpoint of literary and artistic development. It is a suitable climax of the year's work because of the friendship and Christian fellowship which can be felt in this event.

In commenting upon the contest, Mr. Owen Shields, president of the Thalos, says that, while in the past the Thalos have not given the Philos much competition, this year they are on a more equal basis. Mr. Shields appreciates the spirit in which the contestants have accepted the tasks given to them and he is sure the Thalos will have no cause for regret.

The Philos will be represented by Miss Lorena Porter in the piano division, Mr. Lauren York in voice, Mr. Marvin Schilling in essay, Miss Alice Lovin in reading, Mr. Robert Jacobs in oratory, and Miss Edith Lewis in violin. They will have no representative in the organ contest.

For piano the Thalos will be represented by Mr. Walter Martin, voice by Mr. John Betzold, oratory by Mr. Pete Pascoe, essay by Miss Ida White, reading by Miss Clive Crombie, organ by Miss Athalia Koch, and violin by Mr. Paul Yingling.

The committee in charge have secured the services of competent judges. This fact combined with the new spirit which has been felt in the two societies should result in an unusual contest.

Taylor Students Are Entertained Recently

A group of Taylor students were recently entertained at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Jenkins near Hartford City. These people are friends of the Jacobs brothers. Sunday of last week was spent by them and their friends at the home mentioned above, being a quiet diversion from regular campus life. Taylor students who were present were Robert Jacobs, Virginia Beckrink, Russell Jacobs, Roberta Bennett, and Herbert Boyd.

Banquet Given to End First Annual Publication Day

Bringing student publication day to a successful close, the Gem and Echo staffs were feted at a banquet in the university dining hall, sponsored by the faculty committee of student publications. All through the day these people were recognized and distinguished by the badges of ribbon that they wore, which admitted them to this pleasing event.

A flower garden of greenery and fragrant, portraying all the beauty of Spring, was the scene. Four long tables bordered a rectangular plot of velvet grass, trees, and flowers, having a fountain of iris in the center. The tables, being lit by gold tapers in purple holders; being provided with nut cups of flowering pansies, containing gold and purple nuggets; and being adorned with programs of appropriate colors, bearing the pansy flower and the Taylor pennant, very well exhibited (Continued on page 5)

Alumni to Meet Next Monday; Banquet, 6:45

ANNUAL MEETING TO BE HELD MONDAY AFTERNOON; REPORTS TO BE GIVEN

BROWN TO SPEAK

The annual events of the alumni at commencement will take place next Monday when that day will be known as Alumni Day. The afternoon session will be preceded by the annual Literary Society contest which will take place in the morning.

The regular yearly meeting of the graduates of Taylor University will be held Monday afternoon. At that time the officers for 1934 and 1935 and the annual election of directors will take place at the same time. One of the features of the hour will be the receiving of the Class of '34 into membership of the Alumni group. Reports will be given by Dr. Stuart, president of Taylor University.

The feature event of the day will be the banquet in the evening, served in the College Dining hall. This banquet, although primarily an Alumni affair, is open to the public, and plates are available at forty cents each. Dr. Jacobs will be toastmaster and a fine program has been provided for the event. The college stringed quartet will furnish music for the banquet. Other music will be furnished by Howard Skinner and Ada Rupp Skinner, popular graduates of the school of music and at present in Chicago. Vere Abbey, missionary to India, Dr. Robert Brown of China, and Dr. Floy Hurlbut of Ball State Teachers College, will be presented as speakers of the evening. Dr. Floy Hurlbut has spent five years in China and only recently became a member of the faculty of the Muncie institution.

The banquet will be the only meeting of the evening, thus climaxing this annual day of the Alumni.

Robert Jacobs Is Star Reporter

COOKINGHAM AND LOCKRIDGE PLACE NEXT; JACOBS RECEIVES PRIZE

Recently the Echo staff announced that Robert Jacobs had won the Star Reporter reward for this year. This award was offered last fall, at which time the editor of the Echo announced that the reporter doing the best work this year would receive a suitable gift in return for his work.

The contest this year was very close. Grading one point for each first place, two for each second, etc., each week, the perfect score possible would be 16 points at the time the award was presented. Crystal Lockridge, junior, scored 29 points or 13 points above the perfect score. Charles Cookingham, Sophomore, scored 28 points or 12 points above the goal. Mr. Jacobs, junior, scored 26 points or just ten points above the perfect mark and thus came the nearest to the mark.

The contest takes into consideration first the journalistic rating of articles handed in. A strong factor in their rating, though, is the time that the articles are handed in, in comparison to the time they were supposed to be in. Another factor is the condition of the manuscript when given to the news editor.

THANKS!

The Echo Staff desires to thank, publicly, the A. D. Freese and Son Printers of Upland, for their loyal cooperation and helpful criticisms which have assisted the staff in publishing the 1933-1934 Echo. The cooperation has been but a means of raising our rating and of giving further service to our subscribers.

Taylor U. May Day

Draws Large Crowd

VOCAL, ORGAN, AND BAND NUMBERS CONSTITUTE MUSIC PROGRAM OF DAY

The second annual Taylor University May day drew a number of visitors to the campus on Friday, May 18. A large group of Taylor friends gathered in to participate in the day. Some of them even coming from outside the state.

The program of the day opened with a special Chapel program. Following the devotional service President Stuart spoke a few words, after which Marvin Schilling, president of the Senior class, welcomed the guests. Other features of the program were: organ solo, by Miss Bennett; selection by the University Men's Glee Club; and numbers by the Varsity Male Quartet. Following this program Dr. Stuart introduced many of the guests to the student body.

The track and field events then drew the attention of the crowd. Five events were held, 100 and 220 yard broad jump, high jump, and shot put. The highest honors went to Paul Stuart, graduate of Upland High School, who took four firsts and one second. Second honors went to John Powell, also of Upland. The girls drew their share of attention by playing a very interesting game of soft ball.

The noon time brought the interest, as well as the presence, of all to the north side of the Music hall where a general pot-luck dinner was served. The diners were entertained during the meal by a concert by the Taylor University Band.

The main feature of the afternoon was a baseball game between Huntington College and Taylor. The home boys won an easy victory of 6-0.

MISSIONARIES TO INDIA

REV. AND MRS. VERE ABBEY

Rev. and Mrs. Vere Abbey, who have been doing mission work in India for a number of years, returned to America a short time ago to spend furlough of a year and a half's duration.

Rev. Abbey, who is a son of M. O. Abbey, of Upland, was graduated from this university in 1916. Following graduation, Rev. Abbey taught for one year in the High School of Brown Valley, Minn. He later joined the South Dakota Conference of the Methodist Church and served on a charge in Coleman, South Dakota, for three years. While in Minnesota, Rev. Abbey was married to Miss Jesse Norman.

It was in 1920 that Rev. Abbey and his bride went first to India. For five years the missionary, affiliated with the Methodist Board of Missions, served as pastor of the English speaking people in Bangoon, the Capital of Burma.

On his first furlough, Mr. Abbey studied in the Hartford School of Missions at Hartford, Conn., for three years. It was while here that he formed the contacts which made possible his present work. Through the president of the Indian Christian Endeavor Union Executive Council, Vere Abbey received an invitation to be General Secretary of the Christian Endeavor Societies of India, Burma, and Ceylon.

Rev. Abbey returned to India in 1929 and made his headquarters at Bangalou. His work has been chiefly contacting the societies through travel. He says that he averaged 75,000 miles a year. He works among people of almost all the Protestant denominations, and the work is carried on in 14 major languages. In the young peoples' organization, which is made up of 2,000 Christian Endeavor Societies, there are 60,000 members. The work is carried on through Provincial organizations corresponding to the state division of the church societies in America.

Mrs. Abbey accompanies her husband on some of his trips. Besides their Christian Endeavor work, Rev. and Mrs. Abbey publish a monthly magazine, "The India Christian Endeavor," and prepare topics and daily Bible readings for the Junior, Intermediate, and Senior societies of their districts.

During the ten years previous to Rev. Abbey's work among the youth of India, there had been no general Secretary, so that his work is not only that of establishing new societies but reorganizing and reviving those that already do exist.

Rev. Abbey says: "We have organized four new Provincial Unions, at Assam, Central Provinces, Rajputana, and Ceylon. The five years, to my mind, have been along the line of evangelism through the organization of Gospel Team work carried on by Indian Christian Workers.

"The things we are doing outside of evangelistic work are quite important. We have stressed service to the villagers, trying to improve sanitation, living conditions, home industries, and the like. Through the mission program ideas for balanced diets, better methods of agriculture, and the like are projects. The greatest hope comes when the Indian boys and girls come to school, learn the "whys" and "wherefores" and learn of Christ. One of the greatest forces in our work, I feel, is the consecration meeting which occurs once a month and is a definite part of the Christian Endeavor program. The boys and girls are prepared for such a service, and it keeps the spirit of Christ alive among them."

Many Gospel Teams

Busy Over Weekend

The weekend of May 20th found several Gospel Teams out helping in the Churches and Sunday Schools. Dr. and Mrs. Cottingham helped in the revival services at the Avondale Church in Muncie where they had very successful meetings. Mr. Allee's team was at Galveston where they assisted in the Youth's Conference. At the Jefferson Township Church Mr. Schilling's quartet assisted in the Sunday School convention in the morning and afternoon services and were at the Geneva Church in the evening. The Varsity Quartet was at Trinity Church, Fort Wayne, and Mr. Anderson and Mr. Abbey's quartet were at Little Ridge and Muncie.

Meeting for the last times this year the two literary societies recently met for the purpose of election of officers to lead the organizations in 1934 and 1935. The literary societies have taken on a new policy this year and have had literary meetings every other week. In most cases the nominees for the literary contest were chosen by individual contests given in each society. The two presidents, Robert Titus of the Philos and Owen Shields of the Thalos, are to be congratulated for their achievements of the year.

Meetings in society hall the Thalians chose Peter Pascoe to lead them next year. Pascoe is a Presbyterian from New Jersey. Meeting in Spiers Hall the Philios practically unanimously chose Robert Jacobs as the Philalethean president for 1934 and 1935. Jacobs is a popular member of the Junior class. He is the oratory contestant of the Philios this year and has been outstanding in this line of work in High School and College. He was Chairman of the Debate Club banquet this year and is the son of Dr. Jacobs, president of the William Taylor Foundation.

To support Jacobs the Philios elected Lauren York to fill the position of Vice President. Edith Lewis was elected secretary and Milton Persons, treasurer. Lorena Porter was chosen to head the board of censors with Perry Haines and Paul Stephenson as assistants. Robert Titus will be the chaplain.

Two farmers met on the road and pulled up.

"Si, I've got a mule with distemper. What'd ye give that one of yours when he had it?"

"Turpentine. Giddap."

A week later they met again.

"Say, Si, I gave my mule turpentine and it killed him."

"Killed mine, too. Giddap."

Mr. Betzold has had previous work in the newspaper line, and has also served on the editorial staff of the Echo during this last year. ## Thalos Present 'The Valiant' as Final Program

GORDON AND ESTA HERRMANN,
AND JOHN BETZOLD PLAY
LEADING ROLES

Saturday evening at eight o'clock in Shreiner auditorium the Thalonian literary society presented the final program of this school year. This entertainment consisted of a royalty play and a small admission was charged to aid in paying the royalty fee.

The play was entitled "The Valiant." It is a one-act play which was given last year in Connecticut. It is a prize play and extremely dramatic. The play is published by Longman's, Green and Company, New York.

The scene was in the Warden's office in the state prison at Wethersfield, Connecticut. The drama took place at eleven-thirty o'clock on a night when rain was falling violently outside.

The characters and the actors portraying them are as follows: Warden Holt, Gordon Herrmann; Father Daly, Clayton Steele; James Dyke, John Betzold; Josephine Paris, Esta Herrmann; Dan, a jailer, Norman Jerome; and an attendant, Robert Yunker. The cast is to be commended for the extremely dramatic touch that they displayed in presenting this production.

The scene opens with Warden Holt and Father Daly speaking of the matter of dealing with criminals. The Warden mentions the fact that he is betting quite old for his position. James Dyke, the prisoner, confesses that he committed a murder and is very deliberate in saying that he intended to kill the man. He also says that he is ready for any kind of punishment that they want to give him. All the while he is unrelenting, cold, and unemotional. He proves to be a mystery to Daly and Holt. They receive about four hundred letters inquiring for a son and a friend. A girl comes to the prison for an interview with the prisoner and her story sounded the most logical and she was granted her request. During the course of the conversation they learned that this prisoner had known the girl's brother in the war. He told her of the death of her brother on the battle field. He entreats her to comfort her mother with the fact that her son died nobly. After the girl had gone the prisoner realized that his hour had come. His last words were: "The valiant never taste death but once."

FATHER AND SON PROFESSORS

Prof. Harlowe Evans

Dr. George Evans

With the coming of Professor G. Harlowe Evans to the chair of the chemistry department this year, Taylor has the unique situation of a father and son on the faculty. Prof. Evans is the son of Dr. George Evans, head of the department of classical languages and registrar of the institution.

Prof. Evans entered Taylor University as a student in 1920 and spent three years in work here. He received his Bachelor of Science from the University of Michigan. In 1926 he received his Masters of Science from the same University. Previous to coming to the chemistry department here he held the chair of the chemistry and physics department of John Fletcher college in Iowa. At present his resident work has been completed for his Ph.D. degree and his thesis is in final preparation. He will receive this degree from the University of Michigan this summer.

Dr. George Evans has returned to our campus again after being in the Methodist Hospital of Indianapolis for more than a month. He is rapidly regaining his health and has been out lately greeting his many friends. Dr. Evans has served the school for many years, having been a professor here longer than any other man outside of Dr. Ayres.

It is unique indeed for Taylor University to have this father and son professorship on its faculty. Both are at the head of popular departments and are fine Christian leaders upon Taylor's campus.

Steedman Elected

Soph. President

PROF. GEORGE FENSTERMACHER
UNANIMOUSLY CHOSEN AS CLASS SPONSOR

In a meeting, the last of the term, the Freshman class elected Garfield Steedman of Medina, New York, as president of next year's class. Mr. Steedman has been a popular member of the class this year. He has done extensive gospel team work and has been prominent in religious affairs. He was a member of the basketball and baseball teams.

To support Steedman the class chose Grace Hall for Vice President, Aileen Catlin for Secretary and Clifton Hoffman, treasurer. Jack Miller was elected to serve as Chaplain and Perry Haines was given the Sergeant at arms position.

Barry Hunter, retiring president, was elected as the student council member from the class of '37. Hunter has done good work this year.

Because Professor Steucke is not returning next year it was necessary to elect a new sponsor. Professor George Fenstermacher was unanimously elected.

Presidents This Year and Next Speak in the Interest of T. U.

From the time we arrived on Taylor's Campus last fall until the close of this our last year, we have enjoyed, as seniors, the spirit of fellowship and cooperation within our own class, with the other classes, and with the administration. We leave Taylor with a deep appreciation for the school, and with the spirit of Christ reigning in our hearts.

Marvin Schilling
President

Although the Sophomore class of this year has not been characterized by numbers, yet I feel we have progressed a long way in the things of God. One thing which has been outstanding is that so many of our class have found a vital, personal relationship with Christ. There is not a doubt in my mind but that the Holy Spirit can demonstrate the validity of revealed religion.

John W. Betzold
President

I can truthfully say that this has been the greatest year of my life. As I look back with wondering eyes on the steps that have been taken and the changes that have been made I am amazed. My election to the office of President of my class I consider an inestimable privilege.

My life has been a continual growth since I stepped on Taylor's Campus, spiritually and physically there has been a marked advancement due to the influence of such an environment. I have made the goal of my life a life of service through Jesus Christ who strengthens me.

Barry Hunter
President

There's nothing that makes a nation seem so doomed as complete ignorance of the others.

THE CROWN

"The only crown I ask, dear Lord to wear,
Is this—that I may help a little child.
I do not ask that I should even stand
Among the wise, the worthy or the great.
I only ask that softly, hand in hand,
A little child and I may enter at the gate."

Blaine Bishop
President

The class of '36 is looking forward to higher heights of attainment in the coming year. With unity in our midst we are going to press on towards the goal of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus, confident that all of our activities will then be taken care of.

Karl Rice
President

I am grateful for the honor the class of '37 has shown in choosing me as President for our Sophomore year. Loyalty and faithfulness under the splendid leadership of Barry Hunter has characterized our class this year. With such a keen group, next year holds even greater opportunities to carry on the ideals of Taylor. Freshmen, let us continue to pull together.

Juniors Sponsor Regular Spring Bon-fire Event

FROSH BURNS CAP

The 1934 edition of class week was brought to a close last Saturday evening, in the last student event of the year, when the Junior Rules Committee sponsored the annual spring bon-fire service. Tradition has made this event one of the outstanding of each year, and a fine crowd, made up of most of the personnel of the four classes, faculty and many guests and friends, attended.

he three upper classes gathered in the parlors promptly at nine-thirty Saturday evening, and marched across the campus in a procession between large torches upheld by the members of the Class of '37. After arriving at the scene of the event, Robert Titus led the group in the first verse of the Taylor Song. As the words of the song died out, two guests came driving to the scene in an ancient model of a Ford produced "car." The guests alighted from the car and were recognized as "Ollie" Drake and Crystal Lockridge. Drake as the old grandfather and Lockridge playing the part of his grand daughter, presented in a vivid manner the prophecy of the class of '34.

Following this part of the program, Jo Gates, president of the student council, presided and after a few words presented Marvin Schilling, president of the senior class. Schilling spoke briefly upon the policy of the Senior Class. A striking statement was his declaration, "I think that the class of '34 has not been noted so much for what they have done, as for what they have not done." This statement portrayed the fine spirit of the class. At the close of his address he presented Blaine Bishop the senior cane. Bishop then spoke concerning his class, the class of '35, and at the close, called John Betzold to the front and presented the junior key to him.

After speaking of the religious spirit and zeal of the Sophomore Class, Betzold called Garfield Steedman, president elect of next year's Sophomore class and presented to him the Freshman flag which had disappeared the same day. Following this he then presented Steedman, who was representing Barry Hunter the present president of the class who was out of town, the sophomore emblem. Steedman then spoke of the challenge that the Freshman Class had received from the upper three classes and of their goals of the coming year. At the close he tossed his cap into the fire.

At the close of the hour, Jo Gates presented the gavel of the Student Council to Mr. Gordon Herrmann, president elect of that organization for next year, and requested Mr. Herrmann to close the meeting. Herrmann spoke some words appreciation for the position and called upon Bob Titus to lead in the last verse of the Taylor Song. As the fire died down the group went back to their rooms. One group in particular a little sorrowful, knowing that this was their last bon-fire.

UNIVERSITY FORENSIC TEAM

Closing a successful season of debating the Intercollegiate Debate Squad, under the direction of Dr. C. L. Nystrom, will lose four of its members besides the services of its coach. Marvin Schilling, Owen Shields, Harold Martin and Percival Wesche will all graduate next Tuesday and Dr. Nystrom has resigned to become president of a college in Michigan. The four men left will make a good nucleus for the squad next year. The men in the above picture are, left to right, lower row, Peter Pascoe, Marvin Schilling, Owen Shields, and Percival Wesche; upper row, Clifton Hoffman, Harold Martin, Jack Miller, and Clarence Miller. Shields and Wesche were captains of the teams.

AMONG OUR PROFS

(Editor's note: The "Among Our Profs" editor has chosen to present our President in this column this week. He has not been presented in this column before in order to save the presentation for this issue.)

Robert Lee Stuart was born on September 12, 1883, at Basham, Virginia. His parents were the late Charles Wesley Stuart and Lorena J. Stuart now of Delaware. It will be of interest to note here that Dr. Stuart's mother has arrived at Taylor for the current commencement season.

Dr. Robert Lee Stuart

Dr. Stuart journeyed far away from home to Asbury college in Kentucky for his academy work. In 1906 he was graduated from Taylor University with the degree of Bachelor of Philosophy. At that time Dr. Ayres was dean of the college.

In March 1908 Dr. Stuart was married to Josie Lena Conner. To this union five children were born, Marvin '31, Elizabeth '33, Charles a member of the class of '35, Paul who will enter Taylor next year as a freshman, and Josephine. Dr. and Mrs. Stuart were appointed to serve Whiting, Iowa, for their first charge. Subsequently they served Paulina, Adron, Humbolt and Spencer churches, all churches in the Northwest Iowa conference of the Methodist church. In 1923 he received his Doctor of Divinity degree from his Alma Mater.

After serving the large Newton church in the Iowa Conference for five years (Mr. T. H. Maytag's home church) Dr. Stuart was appointed to First Church, El Dorado, Kansas, a church in the Southwest Kansas Conference. It was from this charge that Dr. Stuart was called to the presidency of Taylor University April 7, 1931. In the fall of 1931 he was inaugurated into this office.

Since that time Dr. Stuart has worked unceasingly in the interest of the school. He has traveled from coast to coast, from north to south attempting to place Taylor Univer-

THE "OLD GRADS" VISIT

The "old grads" all came back to-day;
They made a pleasing sight;
We all rejoice to have them here
And they enjoyed it, quite.

They sat around and joked and laughed
As they recalled each scene
Of all the pranks they used to play
To aggravate the dean.

And Dean, he sat and chuckled, too
And then went on to say
That, 'way back when he went to school,
He used to act that way!

And told about the time that he
Sneaked in the old fire-door;
And all the "old grads" chuckled
some
And burst into a roar;

And laughed and laughed, and told again
The clever thing they'd done;
And Dean, he smiled about each trick
And called it "boyish fun."

But I sneaked in the fire-door
(I should have had more sense!)
And Dean, he had my S. P.'s jerked—
It was a grave offense.

Somehow he didn't see the joke.
It makes me feel quite sad
That what he laughed about in them
For me was really bad.

But I will not be angry now
For I'll come back some day
And Dean and I will laugh about
The pranks I used to play.

sity in the hearts of mankind. During this time he has seen his son Marvin go out to take his place in the ministry of the Methodist Church. Today there is a deep sense of gratitude in the hearts of true students, alumni and friends of the school for the work that Dr. Stuart has done for the school.

Former Student Gives Stirring Message Friday

JOE BREWINGTON RETURNS TO TAYLOR AND SPEAKS TO HOLINESS LEAGUE

SPEAKS ON JACOB

After a brief testimony service Joe Brewington, a former student of Taylor University, addressed the League. He chose as his text a portion of Genesis 32:26. "I will not let thee go." The substance of his message is as follows:

"I like a life that can be felt. I do not believe in "perfect" sanctification, because I have something to lay on the altar every day. I am continually growing from day to day. Everywhere I go I have a bright testimony for God. You are all right until you get out alone in a church where there are three backslidden people; then you need something that is real and which lasts. You need spiritual strength. I thought at first that you had to live the Christian life by your own efforts, but I have failed. I was a Devil for 21 years, but when I was saved, I was truly converted.

"Time and again you go to the altar and testify to salvation, and in 30 days you are backslidden. I can see Jacob wrestling with all the energy that he could get and all the ambition he possessed, and when he had said all he could say concerning God and when he had wrestled all night, this determination came, that "I will not let thee go." Tonight that same power exists. I had to lay everything on the altar. I had to even lay a girl on the altar. He took her and gave her back to me. We have to seek God. When Jacob realized that he was in the presence of God and after he had prayed all night he promised that if God gave him food and clothing he would yield. I believe he was converted then.

"I asked a man, 'When Jacob prayed, what did he do; what was the cause of the broken thigh?' And the man said he thought Jacob was having a night mare, and in his dream he walked out and fell and broke his thigh.

"At the break of day Jacob cried, 'I will not let thee go.' I came here to Taylor to get spiritual food. When you pray at night, do you remember all your friends about you? Can you get a grip on God tonight for Taylor? God knows nothing but victory. Victory is His, and all the forces of the Devil cannot upset God's plan. Can we look up to God like Jacob, with simple childlike faith and say, "I will not let thee go." The Devil comes around in mysterious ways trying to defeat you. It is not so hard to live a Christian life at Taylor. The thing that I am trying to stress is to be sure that you have a grip on Christ Jesus. I am praying for Taylor every day, that we may get a grip on God that Jacob had. Please read Genesis, the 28th to 33rd chapters inclusive and see what Jacob fought.

TAYLOR UNIVERSITY STUDENT COUNCIL

Coach Cornwell Gives Athletic Awards Thurs.

EIGHT MEN WIN VARSITY "T"; SIX FRESHMEN TO RECEIVE LETTERS NEXT FALL

Concluding the year as far as athletic events were concerned, Coach Herschel Cornwell led a brief convocation period Thursday morning in honor of those men and women winning awards this year. This is an annual program at which the letters and certificates of award are given to those who merit them.

All men playing in half or more of the games and coming up to other qualifications, received a letter in basketball or baseball. However, no man may win two letters, thus he may win his letter by participation in both sports. Howard, Miller and Stuart received their "T" by participating in both sports. Gates, Boyd, Lewis, and Cookingham received letters for participation in baseball. Weaver received his letter for basketball. These were the only men to win the coveted "T" this year.

According to a rule set down by the "T" Club this year, no Freshman may receive his letter, but he may earn a letter and receive it in the fall of the next year when and if he returns to school. This is to discourage men from coming to school and then dropping out after the first year and to encourage them to come back the second year. "Bill" Smith will receive his letter next fall for participation in both sports. Duckwall and Hunter will gain the coveted "T" for basketball. Hamman, Steedman and Wilson won their "T" in baseball and will receive them next fall.

Certificates awarded were: Varsity Basketball: Duckwall, Hamman, Howard, Hunter, Miller, Smith, Steedman, Stephenson, Stuart, and Weaver; Varsity Baseball: Bastian, Boyd, Cookingham, Duckwall, Gates, Hamman, Howard, Lewis, Miller, Smith, Steedman, Stuart, Wilson; Varsity Track: Herrmann, Jerome, Kidder, Persons, Stuart; Varsity Tennis: Hoffman, Linn, Long, Yingling.

Certificates for men's intermural basketball were awarded to Boyd, Drake, Gates, Schilling, Shields, Wesche, Seniors; Abbey, Bastian, Herrmann, Kruschwitz, Long, Persons, Strong, York, Juniors; Ayres, Bowman, Goldenbogen, Kidder, Tennant, Yingling, Sophomores; Brown, Holder, Lautenschlager, Yunker, Linn, Freshmen.

Certificates for women's intramural basketball were awarded to Bennett, Brown, Deich, Gilmore, Nibel, Pugh and Walker, Seniors; Brothers, Coby, Frey, Kendall, D. Lewis, M. Lewis, Tooley, Juniors; Coby, Gross, Harris, Hawkins, Herrington, E. Lewis, MacKellar, Peck, Phillips, Freshmen.

Certificates for intramural tennis and track were not awarded in time for this issue of the Echo.

Dr. Parrish Speaks On Need for Medical Missionaries Today

Dr. Rebecca Parrish, a former missionary to the Philippine Islands, brought to the faculty and students a vivid picture of the medical work in the Islands in a recent chapel service. The missionaries to this district felt the need of a medical center both for themselves and for the natives and so the clinic of which Dr. Parrish was the head was established. All types of cases were cared for, but one of the largest fields was among the children as child mortality is very high. Milk stations, prenatal clinics, and kindergartens were established. The aim of the clinic was to start the family right. Much of this work was promoted by means of radio talks.

Dr. Parrish said also that she felt that while preaching is valuable it is not all important, as the physical body must be cared for as well as the soul.

TAYLOR UNIVERSITY LETTER CLUB

The "T" Club is composed of all men who have received the Varsity "T." The purpose of the organization is to aid in the development of the athletic program by serving as an advisory board to Coach Cornwell and assisting in the administration of the department's program. Four of the men in the above picture will not be members of the club until next fall as freshmen are not included in the club. They are Duckwall, Hunter, Smith and Stephenson. Arthur Howard, president, and Jo Gates, secretary, are the only men to graduate from the club this spring. The men are, left to right, lower row, Miller, Persons, Stuart, Smith, Stephenson, and Weaver; upper row, Duckwall, Gates, Howard, Hunter, Kidder, and Lewis.

Rev. Bransford Gives Stirring Message on "Army of the Cross"

ANDERSON PASTOR EMPHASIZES NEED OF SPIRIT FILLED FOLLOWERS OF CHRIST

On May 22, Rev. W. H. Bransford, pastor of the First M. E. Church in Anderson, delivered a brilliant and stirring message on "The Army of the Cross."

Paul, strong in the grace which is in Christ Jesus, endured hardness as a soldier of the cross, as he faced the problem of going into a decadent civilization and letting God transform therein, Jesus, realizing in full what it meant to be his disciple, bade his disciples to count the cost. After three intensive years there were just one hundred and twenty who survived the persecution and were willing to go into Pentecost's upper room to dare! But in that group Jesus had an army that was ready to die for the Commander and to reveal the cross. We need an army of Christ today, an army of fierce saints who hate nothing but wrong. Abraham Lincoln once said, "The only ground between right and wrong is a battle ground." It is easy not to face the facts of the day. Clever deceptions have simply ruined the possibility of fellowship and brotherhood. It means that you and I must draw near Him and meet His demands. It will be a dynamic hour when we get an army of truth-tellers. This is the only hope to stem the tide of rottenness that sweeps across the world.

12,000 murders, 30,000 suicides, 100,000 assaults occurred last year. It required fifteen times more money to stem the tide of crime than to finance the public educational system. The cost of the late war would have financed the present religious program for six hundred years. The youth of today must catch the picture. Has anyone ever thought of the power of three hundred young men utterly given to God?

Jesus strips of all disguises and swings up his rugged cross to say, "If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross." To call men and women to His way may mean misunderstandings, conflicts, and clashes.

The body of one hundred and twenty marched out of the room of Pentecost in absolute self abandonment. In three short centuries they had honeycombed the Roman empire and planted the cross of Christ. When God's fire burns through every unworthy element of the personality then shall we follow the blood-red banner of our Christ.

Professor of Music Speaks Recently in Weekly Prayer Hour

Professor George Fenstermacher was the leader of the splendid devotional hour on a recent Thursday evening. The basis of his thought was the familiar chapter of John 15, the portion which deals with the thought of the union of Christ and His followers. It was this close walk, communion to which our attention was directed. Reference was made to Enoch, the man who walked with God some three hundred years. How much more should we walk with him during our short span of life!

Practicing, cultivation the presence of God is one of the most outstanding measures to develop in forestalling the spiritual casualties which are so prevalent during the summer. When we are separated, we cultivate the presence of our mother, our family, but practicing the presence of God is even dearer and more vital.

Personal testimonies fired with the determination to remain true to Christ through the testing vacation period followed the leader's message.

Some folks are as polite as they know how to be which isn't quite enough.

Leaders Give Schedule for Summer Teams

THREE TEAMS TO DO EXTENSIVE WORK; QUARTET TO TRAVEL AGAIN

Dr. Cottingham and Miss Gerken have announced that an extensive schedule of quartet and gospel team work will be carried on again this summer. During each summer for many years Taylor University has sent many teams out in the interest of the school and the Kingdom of God. One of the most popular of these teams has been the Taylor University Male Quartet which will again be representing the school this summer.

This quartet composed of Lauren York of New York, Bass, Ralph Long of Kokomo, Baritone, Robert Titus of Pennsylvania, Second Tenor, and Robert Dennis of Massachusetts, First Tenor, will begin a full schedule by singing at the North Indiana Conference Session at Elkhart, Indiana, the same week as Commencement. Dr. Stuart will also speak at this session. Following this week they will journey to Dixon where Cottingham will be with the quartet and Dr. Stuart at the large camp meeting there. Other places where they will be this summer are the New Freedom Camp Meeting in Pennsylvania, Buffalo summer meeting, Toledo, Ohio, Detroit, Mich., Saginaw, Michigan, Columbus, Ohio, Indianapolis, Indiana, and East St. Louis, Missouri.

The second quartet made up of Walter Martin of Pennsylvania, First Tenor, John Betzold of New Jersey, Second Tenor, Marvin Schilling of Wisconsin, Baritone, and Ivan Hodges of Florida, Bass, will also travel for the school. Most of their work will be in Pennsylvania, New York and Michigan. They will begin at Kinzua, Pennsylvania, on June 15.

It is possible that Wayne Allee will again lead a team made up of Elaine Bishop and others. They will work in camp meetings and youth meetings in Indiana.

Freshman Injured In Auto Accident; Suffers Fracture

The many friends of Esther Baker of Hartford City, Indiana, have been sorry to hear of her serious injury in a recent auto accident which has left her in a critical condition and caused her to be unable to finish this term's work.

While riding with a friend recently, the car in which Miss Baker was riding plunged into a cement culvert after the steering apparatus had broken. The friend was not injured but Miss Baker suffered a crushed chest and broken limb besides many cuts and bruises. It has been reported that in the accident her right hip was pushed upward almost six inches and that as yet the specialists have not been able to set the bone in her limb.

Miss Baker is a member of the class of '27 and has been driving from home every day during the spring term. Her many friends wish her a quick and complete recovery.

Trojans Defeat Concordia Nine In Sec'd Game

BILL SMITH LED HOME TEAM TO VICTORY WITH A 2 TO 1 SCORE; HOWARD, MILLER AND WILSON EACH GET TWO HITS; HOWARD AND MILLER BRING IN RUNS.

Holding Concordia to four hits and smashing out a powerful three bagger himself, Bill Smith led the Taylor Trojans to a 2 to 1 victory over the Concordia aggregation Saturday in the last home game of the season for the Taylorites. Smarting under a loss to the Ft. Wayne team previously the Trojans started out with two runs in the third inning and were never threatened until the last inning when the visitors scored and put a man on third with the tying run.

Although there were six errors behind the pitching of Smith he managed to hold Concordia in check and good control coupled with eight hard hits for the purple and gold paved the way for the victory. Howard, Miller, and Wilson with two hits each led the Taylor stickers. A fast double play on a purposed squeeze play in the final inning stopped the game from going into extra innings.

Weller pitched all the way for Concordia and was given good support, but he made the mistake of grooving the ball too many times.

Students Interested In Class Track Meet

The class track meet was held Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. The meet was held too late to get the results in the paper but much enthusiasm was displayed over the meet.

It was conducted on the decathlon plan this year with a percentage basis deciding the outcome. Each class was to enter three men in each event and the grand total of percentage from the six events decided the winner. The 100 yard dash, 120 yard low hurdles, 880 yard run, shot put, high jump and broad jump were the events included in the meet.

Considerable interest was shown for the meet and several non-varsity men worked daily in preparation for it.

Jerome and Steele from the freshman class, Kidder of Sophomores, Bastian, Persons and Herrmann of the Juniors, and Gates, Boyd, Schilling, Drake, and Wesche of the Sen-

TROJANS TO CLOSE SEASON

The Taylor Trojans will finish up their current season tomorrow with a double header against Indiana Central at Indianapolis. This will be the last game for Howard, shortstop; Gates, first baseman; and Boyd, outfielder. These men will graduate next Tuesday. The personnel of the picture above are, first row, left to right, Boyd, Wilson, Hamman, Stuart, Howard and Gates; second row, Bastian, Yingling, Lewis, Miller, Cookingham, Lautenschlager, and Steedman; back row, Coach Cornwell, Yunker, Abbey, Brown, Duckwall, Goldenbogen, and Assistant Coach Smith.

Chuck Stuart Places Third in Low Hurdles of Big State Meet

STUART TAKES FIRST & THIRD IN LITTLE STATE MEET; 4 TAYLORITES THERE

Saturday, May 19, Coach Cornwell took four men to the Little State Track and Field Meet at Earlham College in Richmond, Indiana. While all of the men but one failed to place the experience gained was well worth while and the honor for the school gained by the performance of one, Chuck Stuart, was worthy of entrance.

Stuart raced around two curves to win the 220 yard low hurdles, beating his nearest competitor two yards to the tape. His time was 25.4 which is good considering running around curves and on a soft track. Entering the high hurdles he managed to place third behind the man who later went on to win the state championship in that event.

Last Saturday Stuart and Kidder journeyed to Purdue University, where Stuart entered the hurdles and Kidder the two mile. After placing third in the trials, Stuart went on to place third in the finals of the low hurdles. The time of the winner was 24.4 and Chuck was hard on his heels at the finish. In the highs Stuart failed to qualify for the finals but it must be remembered that only last year Stuart threw out both knees and the pull on the knees is very tense in the high event. Kidder ran a nice race to finish eighth in the two mile run which was won by Sears of Butler. Purvis, of Purdue, nephew of Cornwell, won the javelin throw with a heave of over 195 feet.

Stuart has three nice medals to add to his high school collection and with the experience of this year will undoubtedly win some more races for himself next year.

ior class were the backbones of their respective teams.

Accomplishments were rated on the following:

- 100 yard dash—11 seconds.
- Shot put—40 feet.
- 120 low hurdles—15 seconds.
- High jump—5 feet.
- Broad jump—18 feet.
- 880 yard run—2 min. 30 seconds.

It was not necessary that they placed one, two, or three. If you finished thirteenth you would score according to the percentage of the above your mark equalled. For example a 30 foot shot put would score 750 points, regardless of whether that put was first or last.

Stuart, Powell Win May Day Meet

PAUL STUART SCORES TWENTY-THREE POINTS; POWELL WINS JUMP EVENT

Paul Stuart and John Powell dominated the events in the May Day track and field meet sponsored by the Senior Class. Stuart dashed to victory in the 100 and 220 dashes and captured first places also in the shot put and the high jump. He took second to Powell in the broad jump. Harold Miller collected several points with a number of third places to his credit.

Stuart finished with 23 points out of a possible 25 points. He received the certificate given for the highest aggregate points in the meet. Powell received the second certificate. Ribbons were given for three places in each event.

Th day was ideal for the meet and considerable interest was shown among the spectators. The failure of several contestants, who had entered, to participate cut down the entries considerably but nevertheless great enthusiasm was displayed over the meet.

In the girls' soft ball game, the visiting girls soundly swamped the team made up of Taylor coeds. The visiting girls had apparently played ball before because they fielded and batted like veterans and succeeded in winning by a nice sized margin.

Tennis Team loses To Huntington Boys

The Taylor tennis team lost its return engagement with Huntington in four straight matches. Although they displayed a better and more consistent type of tennis the Huntington team had too much power. Hoffman lost his singles match to Bowman, 0-6, 3-6, and Hoffman and Linn bowed to Mignery and Cook in a thriller, the scores being 9-11, 6-4, 7-9. Long was beaten by Johnson 1-6, 4-6, and Long and Yingling lost their doubles match to Johnson and Bowman 1-6, 3-6.

This concludes the match play for the tennis team this year and although they didn't win they deserve to be commended for their hard and consistent work they have put in. They have received some valuable experience this year which will be invaluable in future matches.

Trojans Encounter Ind. Central Nine

DOUBLE-HEADER CARDED FOR SATURDAY; TAYLORITES SEEK REVENGE

The Taylor Trojans travel to the capital city Saturday to battle the Indiana Central Greyhounds in a double header as the final night cap of the 1934 spring baseball season. The work of the Trojans' nine is all cut out and if they are to win these games heads up ball will have to be played at all times.

In the first encounter of the season the Greyhounds captured both ends of the double header by scores of 15-3 and 2-1. Their ball team includes several dangerous hitters who can collect their share of safeties from most of the college hurlers and they are tough to beat. They only used one pitcher for both games here and he was effective all the way. However, they have even a tougher pitcher on the roster and it is going to be no easy task to take both ends of this twin bill.

The team is looking better in these later games and provided they settle down and make a minimum of errors they will make it plenty tough for the Indiana Central boys.

Smith and Miller will divide the pitching duties and if in form they should be very effective. Stuart may be used as a relief hurler if necessary. The line up will be practically the same as started the Concordia game except for third base when Miller is pitching.

The man who never hears anything bad about himself must spend half his time sticking his fingers in his ears.

Taylor Wins 6-0 Victory in May Day Ball Game

TROJANS GET EARLY START BY SCORING TWO RUNS IN FIRST INNING; STEEDMAN KNOCKS HOME RUN; SMITH HOLDS HUNTINGTON NINE TO ONLY SIX HITS.

As a climax to the May Day festivities the Taylor Trojan nine completely submerged the Huntington Foresters sending them home on the short end of a 6 to 0 score. Probably enthused by a fine crowd the Trojans went to work from the very beginning and after scoring two runs in the first inning were never threatened.

Allowing only six hits and keeping them well scattered, Bill Smith turned in the best game of this year. Smith had good control and relied upon his curve ball to get ahead of his man and then struck them out with his fast ball. At no time in the game was he in danger, and during the last four innings he coasted in to an easy victory.

To lead the hitting three men, Cookingham, Steedman and Gates, each made three hits out of four times at bat. Howard, Miller and Wilson each got one to make the total of 12 hits off the pitching of Lechleider, Forester pitcher. Lechleider had to overcome the five errors made by his teammates.

The Trojans were a different team in this game. Making only three errors, one being a bad throw by Howard after knocking down a terrific line drive, and another a dropped third strike by Wilson, the Trojans ably backed up their pitcher. In every game this year they have out hit their opponents but errors have made it costly and have been the cause of the pitchers' downfall.

Steedman connected in the fifth for a drive that went over the right fielder's head and romped all the way home for his second homer of the year. Miller and Wilson both hit out three baggers. Miller also pulled a smart hidden ball trick to catch the only man to reach third base, standing off the bag. This was Ware who got the only extra base hit off Smith, a three-bagger to right.
